Reimbursement may be available for implantable cardiovascular physiologic monitoring (ICPM) to help with heart failure management.

When Cardiac Compass from ICD and CRT devices is used to help manage a patient’s heart failure, the ICPM CPT® codes may be reported.¹

Reimbursement for ICPM interrogation is available once per 30 days, regardless of the number or combination of physiologic data elements interrogated.¹ Reimbursement is available for only those services that are considered to be medically reasonable and necessary. Documentation in the medical record must support the medical necessity of services performed.² ³
